

March

On the Cover:

Arachnid

Arachnid has been developing the latest in soft tip technology for the last four decades. These days the factory remains focused on its Galaxy 3 Live platform.

The game offers remote, online competition and dual targets: one soft-tipped traditional 15" and one steel-tipped size 13". New features for the Galaxy 3 Live extend remote play even further by adding options for players to hook up with friends and competitors in different ways.

Top Headlines:

- AMOA Launches Mobile App
- New York's Millie McCarthy Passes Away
- Former Ultracade Exec David Foley Sentenced to Prison

Inspiring Words:

"AMOA has resources and we hope to be a more valued asset to our state member groups. It only makes sense for us to collaborate in order to make all of us stronger."

— Outgoing AMOA President John Pascaretti

Featured New Product:

- Intoxbox's Breathalyzer
- UNIS's Squirt A Gator

April

On the Cover:

Benchmark

Benchmark Games has embraced a new wave of change as it enters its third decade manufacturing redemption and novelty equipment.

Company president and co-founder Al Kress, a former operator and distributor, keeps customer needs front and center as the firm pursues new product development, expedited parts shipping and a responsive customer service department.

Top Headlines:

- U.S. Mint Exploring Metallic Changes to Coinage
- Megatouch Ships Very Last Software Update
- Internet Gaming Centers Return to Florida

Inspiring Words:

"Partisanship is bad for business, at least small to medium sized businesses. Fortunately, small businesses may well have the answer to our partisan problems if more of them would follow the example of our industry's leaders and take their case for policy and tax planning stability to their elected representatives from both parties."

— RePlay Editorial

Featured New Product:

- Namco's Goal Line Rush
- Coast to Coast Entertainment's Candy Street Crane

